About the Program/Section

CatholicCare Victoria’s Youth Justice Community Support Service (YJCSS) is an integrated approach to the provision of intensive support and services to young people involved with Department of Justice and Community Safety (DJCS) Youth Justice Unit to complement the statutory case management for clients assessed as requiring high to intensive level of intervention.

This includes clients on community based orders, Youth Control Orders and Intensive Bail and those exiting custody who require post release support and may also include pre-sentence clients with unique needs and lack of alternative support options. The service has been developed recognising that Youth Justice clients present with a range of complex and varied needs that require an individualised service response.

The aim is to reduce the rate, severity and frequency of offending behaviour; enable effective transition for young people into their community post Youth Justice involvement; assist to develop independent living skills, social inclusion and resilience for adulthood; assist in developing capacity and involvement in education, training and employment.

Position Summary

To provide a flexible and intensive supervisory and support response to young people under statutory order including Youth Control Orders (YCO) and Intensive Bail (IB). This position works as part of an integrated team to provide individually targeted supports and responses to young people who have come into contact with the justice system to address their criminogenic behaviours and avoid further progression in the criminal justice system. The position aims to increase protective factors and increase pro-social activities and engagement in education, training and /or employment and support connections with family and community by actively engaging with young people in after-hours timeframes.

This position is required to meet a small number of targets and deliver mostly after-hours services in a professional and accountable manner and develop sound professional relationships with key stakeholders, including DJCS Youth Justice and the broader community sector.

The position will requires work on a rotating roster which includes approximately 40% business hours and 60% after-hours, comprised of later finish times and weekends and public holidays, with one weekend off per month. The position also requires flexibility to cover shifts when staff are on leave.
