Position Summary

The position is responsible for ensuring the effective and efficient coordination of the Youth Justice Community Support Service and the Youth Justice Group Conferencing program, across the Grampians and Loddon catchments. The position also has responsibility for the Empower Youth program in Geelong.

Youth Justice Community Support Service – Grampians

CatholicCare Victoria's Youth Justice Community Support Service (YJCSS) is an integrated approach to the provision of support and services to young people involved with Department of Justice Community Safety to complement the statutory case management for clients assessed as requiring high to intensive level of intervention, including clients on community based orders, Youth Control Orders and Intensive Bail and those exiting custody who require post release support and may also include pre-sentence clients with unique needs and lack of alternative support options. The YJCSS provides individually targeted and flexible service response (including afterhours and weekend support and activities) to young people who have come into contact with the justice system to address their criminogenic behaviours and avoid further progression in the criminal justice system. The program aim is to reduce the rate, severity and frequency of offending behaviour; enable effective transition for young people into their community post Youth Justice involvement; assist to develop independent living skills, social inclusion and resilience for adulthood; assist in developing capacity and involvement in education, training and employment. This program is located in the Grampians and Wimmera.

Youth Justice Group Conferencing – Grampians and Loddon

Youth Justice Group Conferencing is restorative justice conferencing program for young people who have pleaded guilty to an offence in the Children's Court. The program aims to address the client's offending behaviour by providing an opportunity to realise the impact of the offence on the victim and others affected. During preparation for the conference, the convenor provides case management to increase the client's support system to minimise the likelihood of re-offending. This program is located in Loddon, Mallee and Grampians.

Empower Youth – Geelong

CCV has been contracted by the Department of Families Fairness and Housing – Office for Youth, to deliver an innovative and responsive service to vulnerable young people. The program aims to strengthen participants health and well-being, increase their positive participation in community, enhance their engagement in education and training and promote their career pathways into employment.

Empower Youth provide individually targeted case management and supports to young people who are disengaged from school, training or employment, family and community or at risk of engaging in anti-social behaviour. CCV's Empower Youth program is located in Geelong.

The Team Leader, Youth Justice Programs will report to the Manager Family Services. The Team Leader, Youth Justice will be responsible for the leadership and supervision of all youth teams as described above. The incumbent will ensure that: CatholicCare Victoria's quality assurance processes are fully implemented; services are provided promptly; program performance monitoring and reporting requirements are undertaken accurately and on time; and budget expenditure is monitored accurately.

The position is also responsible for coordinating and monitoring caseloads, including providing support, guidance and supervision to staff to ensure positive outcomes.
