This is supported through a range of different aspects within CatholicCare Victoria - recruitment EEO statement, workplace flexibility and family friendly practices to encourage gender equality. We also offer generous personal leave and maternity leave above the NES and above the award. We are also a member of the local Communities of Respect and Equality which is a Gender Equality Agency within the Grampians Region and a similar partnership to promote equity in Bendigo.

One of the key principles in the provision of services to the community is the promotion of the rights of women and an advocacy approach that seeks to address the social factors that contribute to the dis-empowerment of women and children.
